Big surge in spending on credit cards

HOUSEHOLDS are spending more on credit cards and putting less money into savings amid the cost of living squeeze.

The Bank of England said net consumer credit borrowing totalled £1.2 billion in November 2021.

The figure includes borrowing using credit cards, overdrafts and personal loans.

The majority of this was due to additional borrowing on credit cards, making up £862 million of the total.

It was the strongest net borrowing on credit cards since July 2020.

People also deposited an additional £4.7bn into bank and building society and NS&I accounts in November.

This was less than half the average net flow of £11.2bn going into accounts in the 12 months to October 2021.

Soaring energy costs are putting pressure on households.

2021 a record for Channel migrants

A RECORD number of migrants entered the UK aboard small boats via the English Channel last year, figures suggest.

More than 28,300 people made the treacherous journey in 2021, triple the number for the year before, according to data from the Home Office.

The highest number of crossings was recorded in November, when at least 6,869 people reached the country.

On November 24, at least 27 people died when their boat, which was likened to a blow-up pool, sank in the Channel.

London mayor's green light for drugs

SADIQ Khan is reportedly set to decriminalise drugs in London and wants to end the prosecution of young people caught with cannabis.

The London mayor will allow under-25s caught with Class B drugs, which include cannabis, to be offered speeding course-style classes or counselling instead of arrest.

The boroughs of Lewisham, Greenwich and Bexley will be subject to the rules of the new scheme.

It will see police officers told not to arrest young people caught with drugs including cannabis, ketamine or speed.

Instead, offenders will be taken back to their family homes and kept out of cells.

The move comes less than a month after Prime Minister Boris Johnson announced a major crackdown on recreational drug use.

He warned middle class users that he will not sit "idly by" and let them fund crime, saying they face being stripped of their passports and driving licences under new curbs.

Labour leader Sir Keir Starmer, who was the director of public prosecutions before he entered Parliament, has previously said he does not think decriminalisation should be pursued in England.

Mr Khan's scheme is set to be announced this month and will be spearheaded by Lewisham mayor Damien Egan.

The new policy is based on research suggesting police time would be better spent on serious and violent crime, instead of punishing those caught with cannabis.

NO MORE ARRESTS: Sadiq Khan

Similar schemes have been tested by police and crime commissioners in Somerset, Durham and the West Midlands.

In April, thousands of marijuana fans flocked to Hyde Park to openly smoke cannabis.

Growth boost as supply chain troubles easing

BRITAIN'S manufacturing sector grew at a faster pace than first thought in December amid signs the supply chain crisis may be finally easing, according to new figures.

The IHS Markit/CIPS manufacturing purchasing managers' index (PMI) reached 57.9 last month.

This was higher than the initial so-called flash PMI reading of 57.6, though a slight drop on the three-month high of 58.1 recorded in November.

Any score above 50 on the index represents growth in the sector.

It signalled a welcome improvement in the supply chain troubles that have hampered the sector and wider economy since the summer.

This helped cool soaring input prices a little for UK factories, though not enough to stop factory gate selling prices rocketing to a new record high as firms passed on rising costs to customers.

The report also cautioned that ongoing supply chain pressures and staff shortages were "still stymieing the overall pace of expansion".

Now get ready for the freeze!

PARTS of the UK are set to face localised blizzard conditions, winds of up to 80mph and freezing temperatures as the UK Health Security Agency urges people to check in on older neighbours.

A cold weather alert has been put in place for most of northern England, with icy conditions and potentially heavy snow possible until lunchtime on Thursday.

There are also snow, ice and wind warnings in parts of northern Scotland.

It follows what the Met Office described as "an exceptionally mild spell" that saw the warmest New Year's Day in the UK since records began.

In England, the colder temperatures might bring snow over the Pennines and North York moors.

PROFESSOR LOCKDOWN: OMICRON MAY HAVE PEAKED

A TOP boffin labelled Professor Lockdown for his bloodcurdling COVID predictions last night suggested that Omicron infections may have peaked.

Professor Neil Ferguson admitted he believes that cases could be starting to plateau in London.

The capital was the first part of Britain to fall victim to the ultra-infectious variant, which studies have shown is milder than previous strains.

Professor Ferguson, an epidemiologist who sits on SAGE, said: "I think I'm cautiously optimistic that infection rates in London in that key 18-50 age group, which has been driving the Omicron epidemic, may possibly have plateaued."

"It's too early to say whether

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

they're going down yet."

He added: "I would say that with an epidemic which has been spreading so quickly and reaching such high numbers, it can't sustain those numbers forever, so we would expect to see case numbers start to come down in the next week, maybe already coming down in London, but in other regions a week to three weeks.

Mayhem

"Whether they then drop precipitously or we see a pattern a bit like we saw with Delta back in July, of an initial drop and then quite a high plateau, remains to be seen."

"It's just too difficult to interpret current mixing trends and what the effect of open schools again will be."

But elsewhere, the surge of

CAUTIOUSLY OPTIMISTIC:
Sage adviser
Prof Neil Ferguson

infections is causing mayhem.

Ministers have been told to draw up plans for bringing in the Army, amid fears a wave of Omicron could cripple key services and force swathes of the country into self-isolation as the New Year return to work threatens to descend into chaos.

After the latest statistics showed almost 1.2 million people have tested positive for COVID over the past week, NHS bosses have been sounding the alarm about spiralling staff absences, warning that particular crisis poses more of a problem than any uptick in hospitalisations.

School heads fear up to a quarter of their staff could be struck down this month, with unions warning a return to online teaching is inevitable for some this term despite Education Secretary Nadhim Zahawi insisting face-to-face classes will stay the norm.

Employees trying to return to the office yesterday faced skeleton rail timetables and last-minute cancellations.

And businesses say they may have to shut their doors or operate shorter hours due to so many workers being in quarantine.

Rubbish bins, recycling containers and bottle banks across the country are also overflowing as councils scale back collections in response to absence levels.

BURGER KING LAUNCH FIRST VEGAN NUGGETS

BURGER King is to launch vegan nuggets across the UK from today as part of a pledge to make its menu 50 per cent meat-free by 2030.

The fast food giant said the new nuggets (left) will taste the same as the meat originals despite being made from only soy and plant proteins.

The company said the nuggets are certified by the Vegan Society. The new nuggets follow

Burger King releasing a plant-based Rebel Whopper burger two years ago, which was later revealed to be unsuitable for vegans because it was cooked on the same grill as meat.

Demand for vegan products is soaring and the chain last year came back with a Vegan Royale burger that is prepared separately from animal products. It said its 2030 50% meat-free aim will help it achieve a target of reducing greenhouse gas emissions by 41%.

Rival McDonald's already sells some "accidentally vegan" Veggie Dippers and also recently launched its vegan McPlant burger in the UK, while the Greggs vegan sausage roll and vegan steak bake have achieved a following among vegans and non-vegans alike.

Delivery driver 'had a w*nk' on customer's step

A PERV delivery driver furiously masturbated on a customer's doorstep after dropping off groceries.

Xavier Downs, 29, was arrested and charged with two counts of indecent exposure in San Antonio, Texas.

According to the police report, the victim had ordered groceries and had them delivered.

Downs dropped the groceries off at the front door and went back to his vehicle. The victim opened the door and collected the groceries, having no contact with Downs.

Moments later, the victim's doorbell camera caught Downs allegedly exposing his genitals and masturbating at the front door, according to the arrest affidavit.

He was interrupted by a dog barking inside the home, and he pulled his shorts back up and walked away.

ADAPTED from the novel by Graham Swift, Mothering Sunday is an arty British romantic drama set between the world wars.

It revolves around the life of Jane Fairchild, a young foundling, and housemaid who's involved in a passionate love affair with a well-born member of another neighbouring household.

Bonking

The problem? Jane's lover is already engaged to be married to another woman.

But no matter, as that doesn't stop them enjoying lots and lots of bonking while Jane's bosses are out of the house. Now, here comes the clue...

It's written by BAFTA-nominated writer Alice Birch, who is the pen behind the recent BBC nudity-fest Normal People.

And, yes, Mothering Sunday is crammed with nudity too, mostly courtesy of Aussie actress Odessa

Young, who plays Jane Fairchild.

We see Odessa wandering around the house, her firm, pert Aussie breasts on show and soft light illuminating her soft downy pubes.

One fan said: "I went to watch it at the cinema but was asked to leave. Yes, for the usual reason."

Knight is all right for Tony says Starmer

SIR Keir Starmer has come out in support of Tony Blair after a petition to strip the former Labour prime minister of his knighthood surpassed 500,000 signatures.

The Labour leader said that it was not a "thorny" issue and insisted that Sir Tony should keep his knighthood as he defended his inclusion on the New Year's honours list.

"I don't think it's thorny at all – I think he deserves the honour," he said. "Obviously I respect the fact that people have different views."

Sir Keir said: "He won three elections, he was a very successful prime minister."

"Whether it's minimum wage, Sure Start centres for young families...the work he has done in Northern Ireland and the peace process."

Questioned about the Blair government's invasion of Iraq, Sir Keir said: "I understand there are strong views on the Iraq war."

Oldies told to get their skates on!

SKATEBOARDING in middle age helps people navigate depression, bond with their children and cope with personal trials, a study has found.

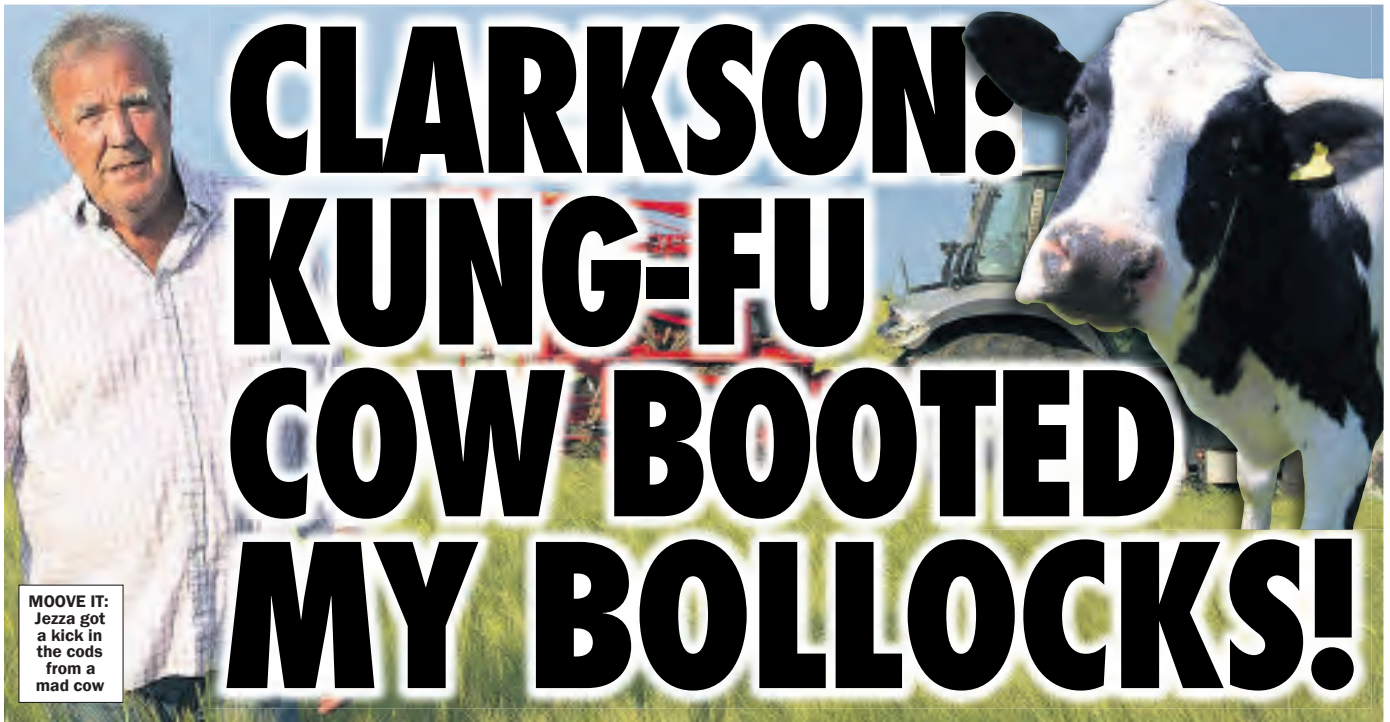

Older people who take part in the sport say it has a "spiritual meaning" in their lives and boosts their happiness.

Skating allows them access to a community and gives them an identity separate from other parts of their lives.

One reason could be because the measure of success in skateboarding is more fluid compared with other sports, and failure is seen as part of the activity.

Dr Paul O'Connor, from the University of Exeter, carried out 30 interviews with middle-aged skateboarders.

"Skateboarding is a serious emotional outlet for people who have experienced personal trials," he said.

JEREMY Clarkson has revealed he suffered 'smashed testicles' after being attacked by one of his cows.

The Clarkson's Farm star, 61, was nipped by one of his animals while attempting to herd them into a brand-new barn he forked out £175,000 on to house them in winter.

In his weekly newspaper column, Jeremy wrote: "I had a plastic bag full of cow treats, which I rattled to let the beasts know that food was in the offing, but as they're pasture-fed, they had no interest in my nutty snacks. One of them, though, did have an interest in killing me."

"It's said a cow cannot kick backwards but I can testify to the fact that this isn't true. A cow can kick in any direction. They are like Bruce Lee, only more deadly and determined because, having failed to connect with her hoofs, she went for another tack – putting her head between my legs and raising it."

Miserable

"This worked well and I was on my knees in the mud with crossed eyes, trying to push the cow away. This, it turns out, is impossible."

"Like trying to push Westminster Abbey."

Jeremy said this was the lowest point in his farming career to date and was 'very miserable' afterwards.

Fortunately, the cow stopped tormenting the former Top Gear host and headed into her new surroundings.

But this wasn't Jeremy's first painful incident in recent times.

In December, he sliced off part of his thumb in a kitchen accident while he was making chilli-flavoured crisps with girlfriend Lisa Hogan.

He wrote: "You slide the potato along it and the razor-sharp blade takes a slice off the bottom. Then you slide it again and it takes another."

"And you keep doing this, with much vigour, until eventually your thumb is in the firing line and it takes a slice off that. A big slice. A crisp-sized slice."

"Lisa noticed under the mandolin, among slices of potato, there was a piece of meat. It was like a miniature pork chop. And, yes, it was half my thumb."

Jeremy bought the farm in 2008 and Clarkson's Farm follows the presenter's highs and lows of tackling a 1,000-acre farm.

The presenter revealed he was "the happiest he has ever been" and that he "loved every second" of filming the new hit show.

WEINSTEIN FACES LATEST SEX ATTACK ALLEGATION

DISGRACED Harvey Weinstein is facing yet another sex assault claim.

The former movie mogul is now accused of 17 attacks on 12 different victims in the UK alone after his most recent alleged victim came forward.

Police are investigating the latest allegation he sexually assaulted a woman in Westminster in the 1990s. This is on top of 16 other alleged assaults in London in the late 1980s, 1992, 2010, 2011 and 2015.

And it follows the allegations made by more than 80 women in the US which sparked the #MeToo movement.

This includes accusations he denies by A-listers Gwyneth Paltrow and Angelina Jolie, and model Cara Delevingne.

Wacko bro 'destroyed my career'

JANET Jackson says her career was wrecked by noncing allegations about her oddball nonce brother Michael.

The 55-year-old singer makes the candid confession in the two-part documentary Janet, set to premiere later this month.

In a trailer for the special, the show's producers are heard asking Janet whether the allegations against Michael "affected her career wise".

"Yeah... guilty by association," the five-time Grammy winner bluntly replies, with a sad look on her face.

Janet stood by her brother amid the court case, where he was acquitted of molesting a minor.

Michael died four years later in 2009, at the age of 50.

In 1993, Michael was also accused of sexually abusing 13-year-old Jordan Chandler at his Neverland Ranch. That case never went to trial, as Chandler's father, Evan, got paid off by the prancing pervert.

A MAN was critically injured after he doused himself in petrol and set himself on fire in public on New Year's Day after ranting against vaccines.

The gruesome act occurred in the Richmond area of Melbourne, Australia, when the man poured the fuel on himself and his vehicle while shouting expletives regarding the state of Victoria's new COVID-19 vaccine mandate.

Witnesses said police and firefighters tried to smother the burning man with water as he exited the vehicle, still shouting.

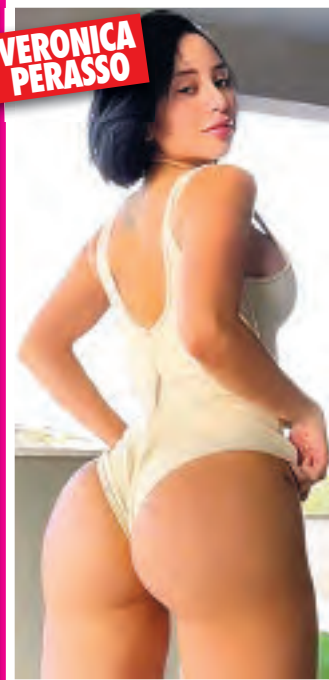

With the help of five bystanders, officials restrained the man before he was taken to hospital.

"His skin was burning. He was on fire," said one female witness.

'Giant cock' potato hit by vandals

A "BIG potato" statue erected in a small village didn't stay up for long.

The famed monument in Cyprus was vandalized and police are investigating the hot potato.

The village honoured the humble spud in October with a giant monument that raised eyebrows for looking phallic in nature.

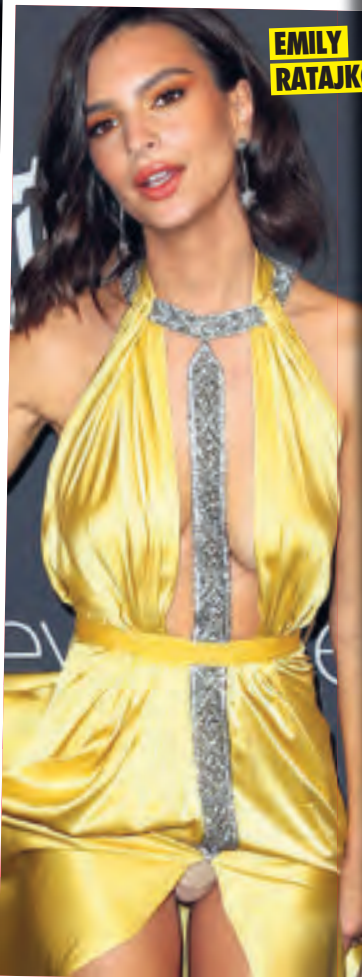

Nicknamed "the big potato," the 16-foot-tall sculpture on the side of a highway was chopped down, causing around £4,000 in damages.

The statue was meant to celebrate the nation's staple crop, and tourists lined up to take selfies beside the bizarre monument (above), which immediately went viral on Twitter.

"Other countries have instantly recognisable monuments, now we have ours," former Cyprus ambassador to the UK Euripides Evriavidis said.

He compares it to other landmarks like the Eiffel Tower and Statue of Liberty.

'Sexual deviant' loses appeal over high heels crime

A SEX pest who offered a woman £70 if she took off her high heels in Asda has failed in his appeal to remove any sexual motive from his crime.

Bupinder Dhaliwal was convicted of behaving in a threatening manner towards his victim at an Asda supermarket in Bearsden, East Dumbartonshire.

He followed his target after he saw her removing her feet from her high heeled shoes.

He approached her and told her he found the act "sexy", offering her £70 to do it again in the car park for his gratification.

Dhaliwal was fined £1,000 at Dumbarton Sheriff Court and ordered to sign the sex offenders register for five years.

But his bid to strike his motives from the record was refused because of the "sexual deviance" of his actions.

Stahl told

By SUZIE SHELDON
news@sundaysport.co.uk

A TEACHER went to a pupil's house while his parents were out and shagged him bendy-legged in his bedroom!

Rampant blonde Jacey Stahl, 22, is now facing a charge that she had sexual contact with a student.

The supply teacher at Golden City High School in Missouri was arrested after a joint investigation by the sheriff's offices in the counties of Jasper and Barton.

Golden City schools are located in Barton County, but the school district also serves a portion of Jasper County.

Messages

The arrest affidavit alleges that she had sexual intercourse with a boy at his home in Jasper County.

Stahl appeared in Jasper County Circuit Court on a charge of sexual contact with a student and entered a not guilty plea.

She posted bail and was released on condition she has no contact with former students or anyone under 18.

Police accuse

teacher of romps in lad's bedroom

The age of the student involved is redacted on court records. He is identified only by initials.

The affidavit alleges that the defendant had sexual intercourse with the boy in the bedroom of his home when his parents were out.

Stahl was employed by the school district as a full-time substitute teacher at the time and the boy was in classes she taught.

The document states that after the sexual contact took place, they continued to communicate via text messages until Stahl asked him, through another student, to destroy his mobile phone and offered to buy him a new one if he did as she asked.

Investigators with the Southwest Missouri Cyber Crimes Task Force conducted a forensic examination of the boy's phone and recovered communications between the two.

New Year's Eve orgy broke COVID rules

A NIGHT of New Year's Eve naughtiness ended in disaster after cops broke up a 50-person orgy.

Police were alerted to the supersized sex party after two attendees knocked on a neighbour's door by mistake.

Under Spanish COVID restrictions, only groups of up to 10 people were allowed to meet indoors.

There was also a curfew in operation between 1am and 6am.

The love-in was found in Llica d'Amunt, near the Catalan capital Barcelona, and between 50 and 70 people are now facing fines.

It has been reported that the party was held by Americans who had hired hookers as part of their celebrations to usher in the new year.

BREWERY CAUGHT IN BUM-LICKING STORM

A BEER company ran into trouble by suggesting those taking part in Dry January should try RIMMING.

Yank beer firm Pabst Blue Ribbon took the bizarre stance against those abstaining from drinking this month, tweeting – and then deleting – “Not drinking this January? Try eating ass.”

When someone on Twitter asked the company what the tweet against “Dry January” was about, it said “it's about ass and eating it”.

The tweet went viral, as users expressed their shock the official brand would use such crass language to discuss those trying to cut back their alcohol intake in the New Year.

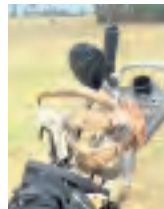

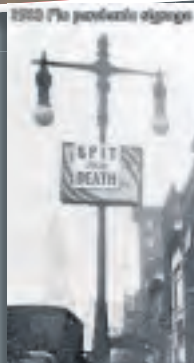

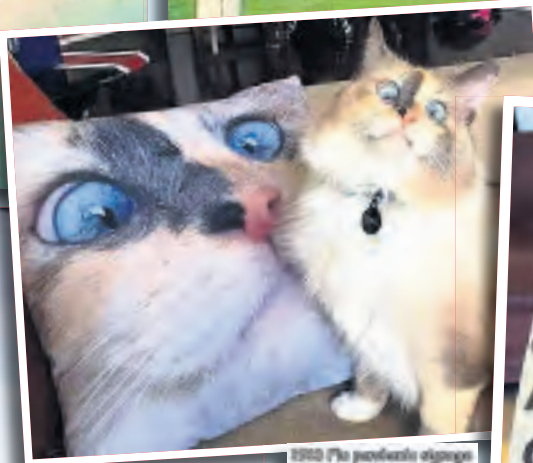

One user took the opportunity to make fun of the beer company, writing, “PBR or ass? What's the difference?”

The brand replied: “Ask your mom.”

Huge robber crab snapped golf club 'like a chainsaw'

AN enormous crab joined golfers and made off with some of their gear after slicing through one of their clubs "like a chainsaw". Footage taken on the course shows the huge crab clutching a man's golf clubs after it had climbed up his golf bag on Christmas Island in the Indian Ocean. Christmas Island local Paul Buhner, who filmed the video, identified the thief as a coconut or "robber" crab.

The group had returned from putting out on their sixth hole to find the crab there. In the video, a man named Al pulls his clubs out of his bag and attempts to gently dislodge the crab without success. "Al might lose a finger here and that would be hilarious," Mr Buhner says. The crab is then filmed snapping the end off one club "like a chainsaw" with one of its large pincers.

DID you know it's National Cuddle Up Day?

Probably not, because National Cuddle Up Day has to be one of the silliest days of the calendar and particularly silly when we're supposed to be social distancing on account of the Chinese Death Plague.

But, as it turns out, there ARE benefits to giving someone a hug.

Cuddling releases oxytocin. This hormone alone has huge health benefits.

Besides giving us warm and fuzzy feelings, oxytocin reduces pain.

So when the cold has made those muscles and joints ache, cuddling can help reduce those aches and pains.

Oxytocin also helps reduce heart disease, blood pressure, stress and anxiety.

Cuddling can improve memory and focus as well.

Alas, going up to someone at random and giving them a cuddle is likely to land you before a magistrate.

So here are five pages of topless ladies hugging to give you that warm, fuzzy feeling...

His tasty chilli had a 'secret'

CHOPPER SHOCKER: Suff hacked off three of his victims' breasts

WHEN smiling Bill Suff served up piping hot bowls of chilli con carne to police officers at an organised 'cook-off' in Riverside, California, he was praised for his culinary skills. But the boys in blue had no idea they could be eating the ground-up flesh of one of his victims...

SICK: Suff violated Christine Leal's body after killing her

NO-ONE knows for sure how many met their end at the hands of mass murderer William 'Bill' Suff.

All we do know is that the 12 officially confirmed slayings should never have been allowed to happen – because Suff should already have been behind bars.

After he brutally killed his two-month-old daughter Janet in 1974, Suff was sentenced to serve 70 years in a Texas prison. The criminal justice system, however, failed spectacularly.

After just 10 years behind bars, Suff was incredibly released on parole.

Within two years, he had embarked on a bloody spree

By JAYNE FERGUSON
news@sundaysport.co.uk

that, according to some, would claim around 30 lives.

He became known as the Cannibal Cook after being suspected of using human meat from his victims to make his own special chilli in cooking competitions.

All the women pictured here – and many more – are believed to be his victims. Three of them had their breasts hacked off.

No wonder the families of those he viciously beat, strangled and mutilated were still reeling when he was finally handed a death sentence in 1995.

But Suff, now 66 and an apparently well-behaved inmate in California's notorious San Quentin prison, remains unrepentant and refuses to admit his guilt.

As District Attorney Grover Trask said at the time: "Mr Suff is the poster child for someone who deserves the death penalty."

"He is what the death penalty was made for. The sooner he dies, the better."

Born in Riverside County, south California, Suff was considered a 'friendly nerd who was always doing things to help people', a loner who wasn't particularly good academically but was always friendly to those around him.

He worked as a store clerk at John's Service Centre, answering the phones, sorting mail and helping customers.

Away from work he was a Star Trek geek who would often babysit for neighbours.

Beating

Shop owner Eric Snyder said: "He used to buy sodas for all the grandkids. He seemed real nice."

That warm reputation was shattered when Suff and his first wife Teryl were arrested in 1974 for beating to death their weeks-old child Janet.

Suff told cops the baby 'must have fallen out of the crib'.

But the poor mite had suffered massive haemorrhaging caused by a beating so severe that her liver was ruptured.

There were historic injuries too – 13 broken ribs, fractured shoulder, extensive bruises on the face and arms, bite marks on her abdomen and a cigarette burn on the sole of one foot. And there was evidence that proved Suff was the perpetrator.

With an entire community revulsed, Suff was sent down for 70 years.

Teryl divorced Suff while he was inside, while the couple also lost custody of their other child, four-year-old William Jr.

Despondent, Suff wrote in a letter: "Divorce is the second worst word in the human language."

"The first is goodbye. I was never really alive to begin with."

But by March 1984, Suff was back on the streets, bizarrely released on parole with decades left to run on his original sentence.

And he appeared to have put his divorce woes behind him by marrying second wife Cheryl Lewis.

The first hint at the carnage to come arrived when Suff left Teryl a threatening note.

She reveals: "He said he knew where I was, he knew where to get me – and he would get me."

More alarm bells should have rung when Cheryl and Suff's daughter Bridgette Ann was taken by authorities after suffering brain damage and other injuries.

The Suffs were investigated but never charged with a crime this time.

Around this time, friends of Suff started noticing how he would often make derogatory comments about the sex workers he'd see on the strip close to where he lived.

Chilling

In 1986, six years of killing began.

Suff had begun work for Riverside County as a stock clerk, mingling with the local law enforcement officers.

In the years that followed, as Suff killed women remorselessly, he entered county cook-off competitions.

His tasty chilli recipes won him first prize on more than one occasion.

It was never admitted publicly, but prosecutors suspect he had a chilling secret ingredient... human meat.

On October 30, the first of a suspected 19 victims – Michelle Yvette Gutierrez, 23 – was found dead, her body strewn with rubbish and half-naked.

She'd been stabbed in the face and chest. Her pubic hair had been ripped out by hand.

The cause of death was strangulation, but Michelle had also suffered extensive mutilation to her body.

Two months later, the corpse of Charlotte Jean Palmer, 24, was found near a motorway.

Due to the staggering number of injuries, coroners could not pinpoint a precise cause of death.

In early 1987, single mum and fast food restaurant worker Linda Ann Ortega, 37, was found strangled and naked in bushes.

The body of Martha Bess Young, 36, followed in May 1987.

She was found naked in a gully, her eyes wide open.

More than 18 months passed before blonde Linda Mae Ruiz, 37, was found dead.

She'd been strangled and smothered by having her head forced into sand.

Kimberly Lyttle, 38, was found strangled in June 1989, while recently-divorced Judy Lynn Angel, 36, was discovered bludgeoned to death five months later.

Deep gashes on her arms and hands suggested attempts to fight off a knife attack.

In January 1990, Christina Leal, 23,

SERIAL KILLER:
Suff was handed death sentence in 1995

Charlotte Palmer

Cherie Payseur

Cheryl Coker

Susan Sternfeld

Sherry Ann Latham

Martha Young

Linda Ortega

was found half-naked, having been sexually assaulted and stabbed through the heart.

Investigators were shocked to find that a light bulb had been inserted into her vagina.

Stabbed

In the same month, a jogger stumbled upon the corpse of Darla Jane Ferguson, 39, mother of four children.

In February, 35-year-old Carol Lynn Miller turned up dead having been missing for a month.

She'd been stabbed multiple times in her breasts.

Cheryl Coker, 33, was found dead in November

1990. She had been strangled and her right breast had been severed and placed beside her.

Between January and August 1991, the bodies of Susan Sternfeld, 27, Kathleen Leslie Milne, 42, Cherie Payseur, 27, Sherry Ann Latham, 37, and Kelly Marie Hammond, 23, were all found in quick succession.

Cherrie had a toilet plunger inserted into her.

In September 1991, 30-year-old Catherine McDonald was found dead, her right breast removed.

The following month, the body of Delliah Zamora Wallace, 35, was discovered in undergrowth.

Eleanore Ojeda Casares, 29 – thought to be Suff's final victim – was found two days before Christmas 1991. Once again, the right breast was missing.

Weeks later, the detectives who'd been hunting a serial killer for five years finally got the break they needed.

Bloody

Suff was pulled over for doing an illegal U-turn in Riverside's red light district.

Officers quizzed him over the area's well-publicised murders.

And when they found a rope and bloody knife in his van, DNA evidence linked him to various crime scenes.

On July 19, 1995, a Riverside County jury found Suff guilty of killing 12 women and attempting to kill another.

The prosecutor, Paul Zellerbach, trembled as he told the court: "Mr Suff is no longer a member of the human race. He is evil."

"By the nature of the crimes he has committed for 22 years, he has no heart, he has no soul and, by God, he has no conscience."

On October 29, 1995, Suff was handed a death sentence.

Ana Zamora, the sister of Delliah Zamora Wallace, said: "It's a very happy day. He is going to feel the same pain that he has caused us."

Bunny Harrison, the sister of Sherry Ann Latham, added: "Now I know that he'll never be able to hurt another person."

"As long as he can't hurt anyone else, then my sister didn't die in vain."

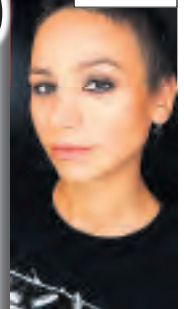

Like many desperate serial killers, Suff appealed against his death penalty.

But in 2014 the California Supreme Court upheld his sentence, describing Suff as 'pathological' and 'manipulative'.

RAPPER WAS STILL ALIVE WHEN WIFE CHOPPED HIM UP

AFFAIR:
But Kokhal (below) denies murdering cheating hubby (above)

A SEX cheat rapper was still alive when his wife chopped him up, before feeding pieces of his body to rats.

Andy Cartwright, 30, was allegedly killed by Marina Kokhal at their home in St Petersburg, Russia.

Kokhal, 37, has admitted to dismembering his body but claimed he died of a drug overdose and denies murdering him.

She claims she chopped up her hubby's remains so his fans would never know he had died such an "inglorious" death and planned to report him as a missing person.

By GRACE HOOPER
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Kokhal and scientific evidence indicates the dismembering "occurred shortly before death".

Kokhal's lawyers told how she was initially accused by detectives of "drinking her dead husband's blood and having sex with his corpse".

Some body parts were located in her fridge, others in bin liners, and his fingertips were fed to rats in the yard outside, it is alleged.

Forensic experts say eight key organs were unavailable to them – his stomach, pancreas, oesophagus, urinary and gall bladders, intestines, adrenal glands and prostate gland.

They were either missing or had been put through a washing machine, it was reported. The case continues.

BORE OFF: Di Caprio and Martin (inset) can stick their do-gooding

IT'S that time of year again when our insufferable celebs get busy on the beach.

When paparazzi snappers get pix published showing the likes of Coldplay frontman Chris Martin jogging along the shores in Mexico with his daughter.

When one of The Corrs girls – I never know which one is which, and most probably, neither do you – is pictured strolling across golden sands in Barbados.

And no doubt over the coming days the other usual suspects will turn up.

The Leonardo Di Caprios and the Emma Thompsons, frothing around in the surf without a care in the world and no fear at all about their impending energy bills back home.

Sorry – I meant homes. And after we've read about glorious holidays in five star hotels or gilded private villas, we won't hear a peep from them for a few months... when they'll pop up yet again at some deranged "climate emergency" gathering to tell the rest of us how we're killing the world.

All three of the above like to make a huge song and dance about saving the world, while hypocritically doing the exact opposite of what they urge of the rest of us.

Take the Coldplay crooner. Pious almost beyond belief, he's been mouthing off lately about how his band will only tour if they can do it, somehow, "ethically".

They're supposedly going to have kinetic floors where fans bouncing up and down will help power the whole gig.

Although I can't see that much bouncing going on to the majority of their dreary output, to be frank. Or Thompson, who infamously got on a private jet to fly from Los Angeles to London to take part in one of those eco-lunatic demos in London, her pricy plane fumes presumably resulting in the death of a polar bear or two.

I wonder how Mr Martin actually got to Mexico. And his kids, for that matter.

Did they all swim there?

Or paddle in on a raft made from the recycled remains of an endangered tiger, its tail propped up at the back to fly a rainbow flag and one for the EU?

Perma-smirk

Or Mr Di Caprio, who likes to hijack the mic at those Godawful awards ceremonies and berate the people who pay to watch his movies and thus his wages about the way we treat "the" – he means "his" – planet...straight after also stepping off his private jet after a quick trip to St Barts with his latest 20-something-year-old shag?

There must, surely, be a special place in hell carved out for these utter c**ts.

And perhaps exceptionally so for a man who called his daughter Apple and wrote a song called Yellow.

Or a smug sod called Leo whose perma-smirk not only suggests he's the cat who got the cream, but is actually the cat who invented cream in the first place.

Or Thompson, whose ingratiating pinko posho foil leaves my teeth feeling like they've been doused in battery acid.

Sure, let's look after the world a bit more.

But enough already from that lot. Happy new year!

'Give me a silver fox over a young buck any time!'

I HAVE a thing for older men. Much older... like up to 40 years older!

There are just some men that really do improve with age.

It's also a confidence thing. A man with experience who knows exactly what he's doing in the bedroom – and outside it – is very attractive.

"Give me a silver fox any day over a young buck!"

Younger lads can be full of cockiness – to make up for their lack of confidence – which is a complete turn off in the bedroom.

Bruce Willis is one sexy senior... I'm 26 and he's 66 but I definitely would go there anytime!

He's got rugged charm and he's got that can rescue you in a life or death situation thing going on.

My taste does mean I'll date men old enough to be my father – grandfather even – but hey ho!

Life on Mars may turn into cannibalism!

BILLIONAIRE Elon Muck (above) wants to colonise Mars but boffins have warned that spacemen may start EATING each other!

Charles Cockell, of Edinburgh University, highlighted that the greatest concern for space colonists could be food security.

Cockell stressed that colonisers need to ensure farming and crop systems operate properly, or they could find themselves in a similar situation to Sir John Franklin's 1845 Arctic exploration, which resulted in the crew cannibalising each other.

"Franklin's crew had tinned food, which was the new technology, and yet they got lost, stranded and they ended up degenerating into cannibalism," he explained.

"If you put a group of people on Callisto, things start going wrong and the plant growth module breaks down, they are going to eat each other if there is no other way to survive."

'Very loud' bum sex hell in New York

TWO alleged squatters have made life hell for neighbours with "very loud" bum sex and wall-shaking arguments, a lawsuit alleges.

Andrew Brokman, 32, and Joseph Cignarale, 28, have brought "rampant drug use, fighting, screaming and overall nuisance" to the building in New York's Chelsea district, where they have failed to pay any rent for more than a year, legal papers claim.

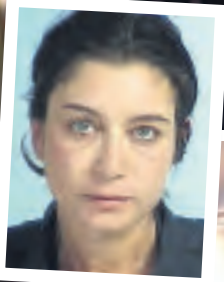

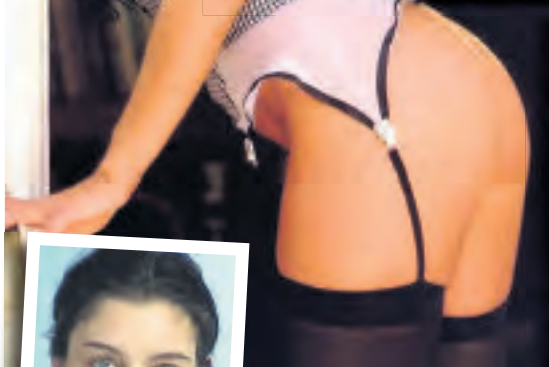

Residents have complained about "fighting, yelling, walls shaking" and "very loud sounds of sexual intercourse" coming from the one-bed unit, according to Manhattan Housing Court papers.

One neighbour was "brought to tears" when reporting booming music.

Cops have been called to the building 13 times, the litigation states.

SLAM AND GLAM: Cornwall slaps man on flight and slaps out her best bits in steamy snaps

A WOMAN caught on video slapping a passenger in an air rage attack on a flight has been revealed as a one-time cheerleader, former small-time actress with a role in Baywatch and MINGE-BARING Playboy model.

Patricia Cornwall, whose stage name is Patty Breton, was charged with assault for a wild mid-flight ruck that went viral on social media. The fracas erupted on a flight from Tampa, Florida, to Atlanta.

Cornwall had been to the loo when she asked a flight attendant with a beverage cart that was blocking the aisle for help finding her seat.

The flight attendant asked Cornwall to find a vacant seat until the service was complete.

Insults

"What am I, Rosa Parks?" Cornwall ranted, according to court documents, referring to the black civil rights hero who refused to sit at the back of a bus in segregated America.

A man who felt the comments were out of line told Cornwall that she "isn't black, this isn't Alabama and this isn't a bus", according to the affidavit.

The two exchanged

By SUZIE SHELTON

insults, with the man telling Cornwall to "Sit down, Karen!"

Cornwall responded "Sit down, pussy".

According to a video of the incident captured by another passenger's mobile phone, the two also screamed at each other to "mask up!"

Cornwall is then seen slapping the man, who shouts, "You're going to jail!"

Cops arrested Cornwall at Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport. Cornwall, now an estate agent, featured in Playboy: Cheerleaders and bared her neatly-trimmed privates in the high-end wank mag.

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page

Dear Lexi,

I RECENTLY boned my fit secretary, a really tasty blonde in her early 20s.
I'm 44 but I'd wanted to shag her virtually since the day she joined our company in the city.
To be honest, I never thought she'd go for me but at the end of a really hectic week I offered to take her out for a meal by way of a bonus.
We both drank a little too much and I booked us in to a hotel where, as soon as we got in the room, she peeled off her kit, revealing stockings and suspenders!
I nearly spunked on the spot but managed to contain myself, even when she gave me the best blowjob I'd had in years.
The problem is that she's now demanding a pay rise and has also threatened to tell the big boss about our affair.
What should I do?

FJ, south London

Lexi says...

YOU'LL have to cough up for your fun!

Dear Lexi,

THE prick I'm living next door to hammers away at DIY jobs in his shed at half six in the morning, but that's not the worst of it.
He's had the cheek to knock on my door and tell my missus to keep the noise down while we're shagging, as it's annoying his f**king budgies!
I finally went round to give him a piece of my mind, but his unexpectedly fit wife answered the door and said he was painting the walls in the bedroom.
She was very apologetic and invited me in for a cuppa. Then she told me her hubby was a total bore and she got off on the noise my missus made in bed and could I do it for her?
So I porked her good and proper on the kitchen table, but I had to keep my hand over her mouth.

DW, east Yorkshire

Ex-hubby 'helping out' with amazing bonking sessions

Dear Lexi,

I'M 36 and I've been married to my second husband for four years.
He is sweet and very generous and he gets on well with my two children.
But unfortunately he's a dead loss in the sack and I am left frustrated after intercourse.
Recently I bumped into my ex-husband in town and I realised the sexual chemistry we had was still there.
I told him about my sexual frustrations and he offered to 'help out'.
He is an amazing performer in bed and never failed to make me orgasm.
So now we get together on Saturday afternoons while my husband takes the kids to the park and I always feel satisfied.

Last week my hubby went off with the kids in the car and within 30 minutes my ex was knocking at the door.
We stripped and he brought me off with his tongue before I sucked him off.
Next I got on all fours and he thrust into me from behind until I had a shuddering orgasm.
Just a routine session with this horny man!
But now I'm feeling guilty. What should I do?

JM, Lancs

I don't want to give up special sex tapes

Dear Lexi,

MY partner and I split up recently after being together for three years.

We had a really adventurous sex life and tried out all sorts of sex positions and adult toys. And the icing on the cake was that we made some explicit homemade sex tapes together.

One time we set up the HD cam at the bottom of the bed and I stripped her underwear off. I started licking her pussy and sucking at her clitoris.

I was also sucking at her rock-hard nipples until she was screaming at me to f**k her.

But first I made her climax with my tongue before she got onto her hands and knees and gave me a hard, fast blowjob.

She traced her tongue around my helmet and gave me a deep throat gobble. It was fantastic.

I didn't want to spurt my load too soon, so I entered her and she swung her legs over my shoulders.

Several thrusts later we both came and screamed the place down, it was so good. After a few glasses of wine, we were ready to go again.

I thrust my knob right up her and she bobbed up and down on me as I tweaked her erect nips.

I came in her and my whole body shook, then she demanded I gave it to her doggy-style until she came.

Our session lasted more than an hour and we had it all recorded.

But later that month, we had a huge row and she walked out on me and moved all her stuff out.

Now she wants me to destroy the sex tapes, but it turns me on to watch them and they are all I have to wank over.

Do you think I need to pass them on to her, or should I keep hold of them?

PT, west Midlands

Dear Lexi,

I PULLED up at some traffic lights and a pretty woman of about 20 came along and started cleaning my windscreen.

As I had no change I asked if she wanted to have a bite to eat. She smiled and got in – she didn't speak English – so I took her for a slap-up feed at a cafe.

Afterwards, I was taking her back and she said "STOP!" so I pulled over. Then she smiled and, before I knew it, she was sucking me off.

I've taken her for lunch a few times since, with the same result, but she doesn't say much.

What should I do?

PT, London

Lexi says...

KEEP them... but keep them private!

Lexi says...

ACTIONS speak louder than words.

Dear Lexi,

MY boss's wife threw a Christmas party for her hubby and I was invited.

She is a 46-year-old blonde babe with a great figure for her age.

Every time we've met, she has always been pretty flirty with me and I'd guessed she was in need of a bit of action, as my boss works all hours and doesn't really love her or show her much affection.

I've just split from my girlfriend and I'm enjoying being single again, so I had no qualms heading off to the party looking for some spare fanny, or even having a dabble with the hostess, if she was up for it.

As the night went on I got chatting to her in the kitchen and she soon made it clear that she was well up for a f**k in private somewhere.

She passed me a note telling me to meet her in the summer house at the bottom of their huge garden.

When I sneaked off and got there she was already inside, with no knickers on, legs spread, rubbing one out.

The problem was, she had one of her female mates with her and the pair were both up for it.

I did my bit and rogered them both. Now she wants regular threesomes.

What should I do?

GM, Essex

I watched young stud pound into my missus

Dear Lexi,

MY wife is 40 and a good-looker who holds down a well-paid job.

Last week she set off for a crucial meeting – at least that's what she claimed – and I was left to take the car in for a service.

I decided to reschedule my day to work at home for a change and a couple of hours later I heard a car pull up in the drive and thought it was the garage returning my vehicle.

But I looked out to see the wife pull up in her car with a hunky guy of about 19.

Next I heard footsteps on the stairs. Obviously the missus thought I was at work and soon there was the sound of giggling coming from the bedroom.

Guzzling

I padded quietly along the corridor to try to get a look at what was going on, but I wasn't prepared for the shock that was coming.

In the mirror of our bedroom door I could see my wife kneeling naked on the bed and guzzling the lad's 10-incher.

I gazed astounded as the cheeky stud then turned her around and f**ked her doggy-style.

I retreated to my study in a state of shock and wanked myself daft over some porn on the internet, wishing I'd beaten her young lover senseless.

I still don't know what to do about her treachery. Should I chuck her out or turn a blind eye?

RS, Cornwall

HARTLOVA

BLONDE besties Angel and Katerina love the cock – but are more than happy to indulge in a spot of minge licking if one's not available.

And Angel, from Reading, and Katerina, from Peterborough, regularly get a faceful of each other's muffs, because they're best friends with benefits.

Katerina, 36F, said: "We are both models from Czechia living in UK, so of course we are friends and we also like to do the sex with each other."

"I prefer a hard man cock up me, but it is nice to feel Angel lick my pussy. She is good lick."

Angel agreed the pals enjoy a sexual chemistry and added: "My favourite is the rubbing of the boobs together."

"It is something you only get with girls, it is very nice feeling and makes me very wet in my pussy."

SPECIAL OFFER: ANY 3 PRIVATE SHOPS DVDs FOR £25 (was £75)

IT'S finally time to say goodbye to the creepy Crawleys of Downton Abbey and hello to the horny hotties of buxom Bottomley Manor!

For all you red-blooded fellas who love your porn but are bored to tears by dull Down On Abby this is your lucky day.

Released last week, the UK's most highly anticipated adult movie is available exclusively through the Sport's adult partner Private Shops and, for a limited time they're offering readers another £5 OFF the already low, low price.

Down On Abby is a big budget, full length adult masterpiece starring porn legend Ben Dover and a cast of the hottest adult stars around. It will transport you to Bottomley Manor, home to the Lord Grabhem (played by Ben Dover), his wife (and 2014 AVN nominee) Jasmine Jae, and their two young promiscuous step-daughters, Abby and Fanny.

The Grabhems have invited the Stiffies to dinner and their staff, led by butler Small*** and footman Master Bates, hurriedly prepare to receive their honoured guests.

But during preparations some members of staff have their own ideas of how to make the night go with a bang! As dinner approaches it seems everyone's got more than fancy nosh on their minds. Mind you, there is plenty of noshing as well as lots of other filth that will even cause a crease in Carson's keks.

We see plenty of R18 DVDs at the Sport but this one is really something special and one you MUST not miss!

This future classic stars Ava Dalush as Missy, Cathy Heaven as Lucy, Emma Leigh as Betty, Jasmine Jae as Lady Wanda Grabhem, Jasmine James as Fanny Grabhem, Jess West as Lady Stiffie, Lexi Lowe as Abby Grabhem, Ben Dover as Lord Will Grabhem, Big Bad Dave as Smithers and Clarke Kent as Master Bates.

SHOW ME THE HONEY!

WELCOME to the interactive Midweek Sport – where YOU get to choose the stunnas appearing on these pages!

That's right fellas, we publish sexy snaps of the babes you most want to see – TOPLESS or even NAKED.

Every Wednesday, Show Me The Honey features the cute curves of glamour girls you're clamouring for. This service – UNIQUE to British newspapers – is totally FREE!

All you have to do is drop us an email to request@sundaysport.co.uk telling us why you want to see your favourite girl, then sit back and let us do the rest.

MISHA

WANNABE rocker Grant Johnson has his eyes set on the sex, drugs, and rock 'n' roll lifestyle and reckons Misha would be the perfect girl for him.

Grant, 28, is a drummer in a rock band who regularly play gigs in pubs and clubs around Wolverhampton.

And he said Czech babe Misha, from Prague, would be an ideal roadie.

He said: "Misha looks like she could be proper naughty – those hazel eyes, the blonde hair, not to mention those perfect boobs!"

ANNA TAVERNER

CARE assistant Oliver Farrow can't get enough of blonde bombshell Anna Taverner.

Oliver, 31, from Blackburn, emailed in asking for his own snap of Anna, from Richmond, North Yorks, after spotting her boobs in the Sport.

He said: "We were doing our rounds the other day, cleaning folk up and giving them their meals and one of the fellas had a Sport."

"He gave it to me and that night I had a great time ogling her boobs – but now I want my own photo of Anna's 32Ds."

REBEKAH

DOG walker Frank Hamworth begged Midweek Sport for a boobs-out photo of racy Rebekah.

Frank, 54, who owns his dog care business in Sunderland, wrote in saying he was desperate to see the Birmingham babe's 34Cs.

He said: "I look after dogs all day and I see plenty of them out and about, I want a real woman to look at when I'm done for the day."

"Can I have a topless picture? Cheers!"

Haven't seen your fave model for a while? Drop us a note and we'll put her in the paper! Email request@sundaysport.co.uk

#HOT'N'HORNY

LOOK out fellas, Nicole Snow isn't just a pretty face – she's a trained BOXER!

The beauty has been fighting in the ring since she was just seven years old and says the sport is the perfect excuse to show off her arse in a pair of sexy hotpants.

Nicole told us she is single and on the hunt for a hunky fella who can make her laugh and knows how to have a good time.

The Leeds lass stripped off and bared her jaw-dropping 32DDs for this steamy shoot.

She said: "I love a man who is a bit cheeky and has a really good sense of humour, someone who can make me laugh and doesn't take life too seriously."

"I find that really attractive. But I don't like bragging and rudeness, that type of attitude is a huge turn-off for me."

"My perfect date would be on a nice warm beach. I'm a total beach babe so any chance for me to get in my bikini, sun and cocktails is right up my street."

CHAMP: Snakebite Wright

Power cuts the key to Snakebite's world glory

DARTS

PETER "Snakebite" Wright says years of getting battered by Phil Taylor helped him win his second world title.

It looked like curtains for the flamboyant flinger when he trailed Michael Smith 5-4 at Ally Pally.

He came back to take the title 7-5 in front of a baying crowd.

Wright said: "I'm very proud of myself and I've learned it from over the years, playing the greats, playing against Phil.

"I learned playing against Phil.

"All the beatings he used to give me and then I'd go in at break, think 'win the next five legs' and I take that on board against everybody I play."

Smith has now lost all NINE major finals he's contested including two worlds.

But Wright thinks the floodgates will open for the St Helens man once he gets the first big title on the board.

He said: "I feel so bad because, as soon as he gets a major, he'll just trounce everybody.

"Michael has done fantastic to get to the final again and will learn from that. He's going to be a future world champion."

Smith himself thinks his first big win is just around the corner.

He added: "I got five sets instead of three this time. I'll definitely be back on that board and I'll be getting ready for the next one."

Djokovic cleared for Aussie Open

TENNIS

NOVAK Djokovic has been cleared to play in the Australian Open despite refusing to get vaccinated against COVID.

The World No1 has been given a medical exemption and will be allowed to defend his title.

Djokovic broke the news on Twitter. He wrote:

"Happy New Year, everybody! Wishing you all health, love and happiness in every present moment and may you feel love and respect towards all beings on this wonderful planet.

"I'm heading Down Under with exemption permission. Let's go 2022!!"

But Italian 'has nothing to prove'

ANTONIO Conte says he's not feeling any pressure returning to Stamford Bridge for the first time as Tottenham manager.

By PAUL THOMAS

He takes his Spurs side to face Chelsea in the first leg of the Carabao Cup semi-final tonight.

And he's relaxed about facing a team he led to glory before being sacked in 2018.

Conte should be remembered with fondness at the Bridge after he led them to the title the season after they had finished tenth.

He has since won Serie A with Inter Milan and was many people's choice for Manchester United before they went for Ralf Rangnick.

Now Conte is looking forward to taking on his old team.

He said: "I think in my position, I mustn't prove anything to anyone.

"I am a manager with experience and I have continued to do an important job in other teams.

It will be great to come back to Stamford Bridge. It's the first time after I left Chelsea.

"What I can say is I spent two amazing seasons, I created a lot of friendships in the club. We did a really important, good job. I also enjoyed the work there.

"I have to tell thanks to Chelsea because they gave me the possibility to work in England. It will be good and emotional to come back to Stamford Bridge.

"But now I am the manager of Tottenham and I want to give this club 100 per cent."

Spurs were one of the first teams to be hit by the latest round of COVID infections and it looks as though the virus could be back at the club.

Tottenham had to postpone three games last month and there's no chance of this one being called off despite "a couple" of players waiting on confirmation of lateral flow positives.

Conte hopes both sides will be close to full strength, although Chelsea are likely to rest some of their bigger names given it's the Carabao Cup.

Success

And the Italian refused to be drawn into the row involving Romelu Lukaku.

There have been strong rumours that the Belgian wants to rejoin Conte at Tottenham after the pair enjoyed great success together at Inter Milan.

That form led to the Londoners paying out £97m for the big striker last summer.

Conte said: "I think that it's always a good thing to play against a team where all the players are available.

"For all the people who watch the game, I think it's good to see the best players on the pitch.

"Honestly, I'd like not to speak about Romelu because Romelu now is at another team. I think it would be disrespectful to speak about him and also about Chelsea."

Conte knows that getting Spurs into the riches of the Champions League is his main objective of the season.

But winning a trophy of any kind wouldn't go amiss. Tottenham's last honour was the League Cup in 2008 and they are overdue a big day at Wembley.

Conte said: "I think that for everyone it's always very important to win trophies.

"But you have to build to win trophies. I think in this moment, Chelsea is more ready to win. They won last season the Champions League. I think we have a lot of space for improvement to become a team that can have the aspiration to win.

HAPPY DAYS: Conte brought success to Stamford Bridge

"We will do everything to try to reach the final. But to use this word 'win' is more simple than to actually win.

"To win, you must build something important and have an important squad. Then you are ready to win. Otherwise you have to hope to do something outstanding."

Cash

Conte has an eye on the transfer market and has made no secret that he would like to bring in a couple of players this month.

The same names keep being linked with the Londoners, with Adama Traore a likely target.

The Wolves forward has been reduced to a bit-part role since Bruno Lage took over at Molineux. That could see Spurs make their move.

Names like Isco of Real Madrid and Barcelona's former Liverpool forward Philippe Coutinho are also being mentioned. At the back, soon to be out of contract AC Milan defender Franck Kessie is a name in the frame.

Conte is about to hold talks with the club's bosses to see how much cash he has to spend and he will surely have been promised a kitty by Daniel Levy.

The Italian added: "My expectation is to speak with my club and then tell them my opinion.

"Then the club will make the decision that they want to make.

"I am a manager and I am in a position where I have to make evaluations. That has happened, now I am waiting to speak to the club. The situation is very simple."

Rio shouts at Ralf for poor United tactics

PRESSURE is growing on Ralf Rangnick after a host of Manchester United legends laid into his team and tactics.

Rio Ferdinand is the latest big name to stick the boot in, pointing the finger at the new interim boss for failing to shake up the club.

Losing 1-0 at home to Wolves was the latest setback for the Red Devils who are struggling to get into the top four.

Ferdinand reckons there are major problems on and off the field. He said: "We don't control enough of the games, and that's down to individuals but also the shape of the team.

"I think there's so much to improve on, there's individuals but also the team shape as at the moment it doesn't seem to be suiting certain players.

"Certain players aren't showing what they're about.

Jolt

"We haven't yet seen the Sancho of Dortmund, Rashford looks like a shadow of his former self, Cavani isn't firing really, Wan-Bissaka is shot of confidence, Maguire is lacking confidence at the moment.

"I'm waiting for the players individually to be built up and that's one of the big key points.

"I thought that was going to be a real jolt, and a real jump and a real shift when this new manager came in.

"Yes, he needs time, but again after the first game I haven't seen a real shift in that confidence and those performances from individuals to elevate us as a team, and that's what we need to see."

Ferdinand was thrilled to see Phil Jones come back and play so well after two years out of the side with injuries.

He added: "For someone to come in from the cold like that, you have to tip your hat to someone like that.

"I'm just pleased he got through the game unscathed, no injuries.

"He put in a decent performance after such a long time out, not easy to do. So you've got to tilt your hat to Phil Jones.

"You've got to say, well done in terms of the amount of time he's been off the pitch, to come in and play in the Premier League and play at the standard he did today."

But Ferdinand did have a sting in the tale for his former teammate.

He added: "Albeit, his header was the one that fell to Moutinho's foot before he scored but I thought he was class for long periods in the game."

£16M SWITCH FOR NATHAN

EVERTON are closing in on a £16m deal for Rangers defender Nathan Patterson.

The Toffees know they are likely to lose Lucas Digne this month with the Frenchman saying he's desperate to leave Goodison Park.

It looks as though he could be heading to Inter Milan but the Italians are short of cash so could ask for a loan deal.

Rafa Benítez has already brought in Ukraine defender Vitaliy Mykolenko but he wants another full-back to replace ageing Seamus Coleman.

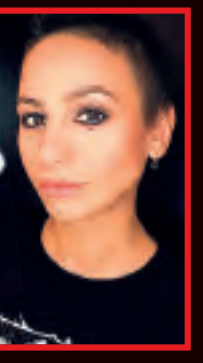

Patterson fits the bill and has reportedly passed his medical and is joining the Premier League strugglers.

He could be the first of a few signings with former Liverpool midfielder Philippe Coutinho also a possible arrival. Barcelona want to get him off their books and his past link with the Brazilian is a plus.

Romelu back on track with Tuchel

ROMELU Lukaku is set to stay at Chelsea after talks with boss Thomas Tuchel.

The big Belgian was in hot water after he told journalists in Italy that he was not enjoying life at Stamford Bridge.

Liverpool and put his future at the club in real jeopardy.

But insiders say Lukaku has held his hands up and knows he should not have made that statement.

That comes as rumours gathered pace in Italy that he would be reunited with former boss Antonio Conte at Tottenham. There is talk that he would prefer to work under the Italian and that Spurs would let Harry Kane join Man City.

But it appears that won't be happening – for now at least.

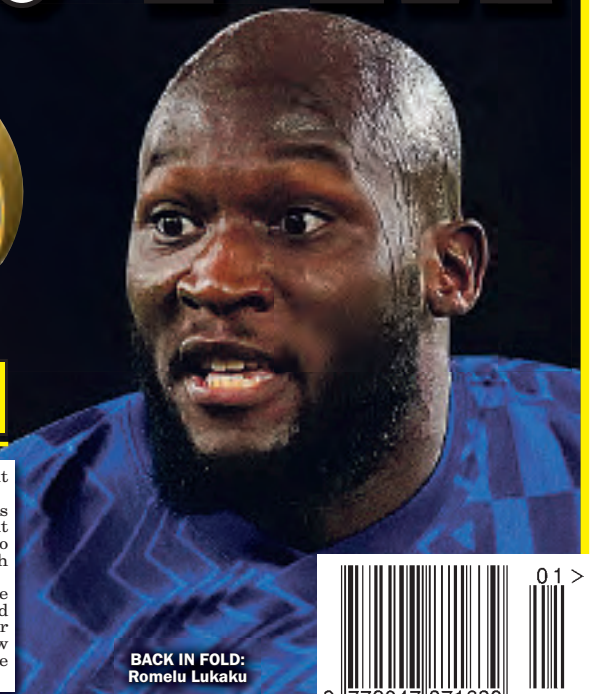

Lukaku caused uproar at the Bridge after telling Sky TV in Italy: "Physically I'm doing great.

"I'm just not very happy with the situation, but that's normal.

"I think the boss has decided to play a different formation but I have to stick at it and get on with it professionally.

"I'm not happy with the situation but it's my job and I mustn't give up. If Inter had offered me a new contract, I would have stayed 100 per cent."
